GENERAL:

- A. An exhibitor may exhibit more than one horse provided the other horses are ready.
- Each horse may have only one exhibitor per class.
- B. The obstacles shall be at the discretion of the show management and/or course designer, and shall not exceed six obstacles.
- C. A trail course designer should give consideration to a course that will enable the exhibitors to negotiate it within a reasonable time. The course should be designed so that each obstacle can be negotiated in less than 90 seconds.
- D. Care should be taken to prevent a direct advantage to either a large horse or a small horse.
- E. The judge has the right to alter, change or eliminate any obstacle in the course that he or she deems to be incorrect or unsafe.
- F. The trail course will be posted for the exhibitors to study at least one hour before the class are to be judged.

SUGGESTED SCORING:

- A. An exhibitor will be penalized a maximum of 15 points on any one obstacle. An exhibitor reaching the maximum 15 penalty points on any one obstacle will be asked to proceed to the next obstacle without additional penalty points being assessed. For example, after two refusals at an obstacle, an exhibitor will be asked to proceed to the next obstacle and will be assessed a maximum of 15 penalty points as follows: 1st refusal - 5 penalty points; 2nd refusal - 5 penalty points; Failure to complete obstacle - 5 penalty points.
- B. All horses with clean or minor fault trips over the course will be considered before horses that have been assessed the maximum 15 penalty points on any obstacle in the final scoring and placing.
- C. Scoring will be on the basis of 0-100, with 70 denoting an average score.

- D. Each obstacle should receive a score and is subject to a penalty that should be subtracted.

- E. Each obstacle should be scored on the following basis:

Score:	0 correct
-1 1/2 extremely poor	+1 1/2 good
-1 very poor	+1 very good
-1/2 poor	+1 1/2 excellent

- F. Obstacle score is to be determined and assessed independently of penalty points.

CREDITS:

- A. Credit will be given to horses negotiating the obstacles with style, expression and a degree of speed, providing carefulness is not sacrificed.
- B. Special credit is given to a horse picking its own way through an obstacle that warrants it, and willingly responding to an exhibitor's cues on other obstacles.

FAULTS:

- A. Horses with an exaggerated or artificial appearance over an obstacle should be penalized.
